

Minister of Finance Gives Broad Hint of Forth coming National Loan

Reduced Interest Charges Desirable Says E. N. Rhodes

Small Investors May Buy Canadian $100 and $200 Bonds

OTTAWA, Feb. 7.—Discussions have been carried on for some time between the dominion and the provinces looking to some arrangement which would give a lead to the people in the matter of a reduction in interest charges. Hon. E. N. Rhodes, minister of finance, told the house of commons Monday, "That is what I would like to do, but I would not wish to go as far as to say that it is a wrong intention."

Canada's next government loan will be for a "large amount" and may be available to small investors in $100 and $200 bonds, the finance minister said.

The backing and commerce committee of the house was instructed to study the problem of a reduction in interest charges when a resolution, moved by Alfred Spence, C.P.A., Red Deer, was accepted without dissent.

While reduction of interest charges was a desirable step, "we must make only a partial contribution toward that recovery to which we all turn our minds," said the finance minister.

Australia had reduced its national interest charges 2½ per cent and was subject for the committee might be reduced, considering what was being done in Australia, he said.

Australia, noted Mr. Rhodes, had reduced its national interest charges 2½ per cent, and had reduced its national interest charges 2½ per cent, and had reduced its national interest charges 2½ per cent.

The speaker remarked, which was being done in Australia, he said, and suggested the banking committee to review the situation and consider means of reducing the debt.

The Canadian National railway is advertising for 1933 for the same revenue as last year. Mr. Fairweather said he believed that the railway would be reached. Although declines in revenue continued, conditions were expected to improve during the remainder of the year.

"You will agree to have given to a heavy job," said Mr. Hall. "I think it would be very difficult to get the railway to be as good as it was before."

Kingston Outbreak Mora Victory Is Won By Convicts In Staging Riots

Officers Perplexed What to do When Angered
Men Turn on Them

KINGSTON, Ont., Feb. 7.—Tim Mora, former leader of the Communist Party in Canada, with four others, helped instigate the riots at Penitentiary here today, disclosed in evidence against William Millich, prisoner at the penitentiary who was committed for trial on a charge of "being a dangerous person." The riotous assembly together to the disturbance of the public peace.

Millich was sentenced to five years imprisonment at Toronto in November, 1931, when he was convicted of advocating the use of force and violence in overthrowing the government. Seven other members were also sent to the prison on similar charges.

Millich escaped a five-year term imposed at Sandwich two years ago, conducted his own work and intelligently cross-examined every witness.

Sensational evidence, telling of the part Millich had taken in the riot, was given by guards and other officers of the institution. It was Millich, they claimed, who ran riot in the kitchen, smashed stoves, lights and everything that came his way, and finally, securing the keys, locked the doors and windows of the building. Armed with a pair of leather knives, they said, he then ordered the convicts, who had been ordered to go to their cells, to only when he was given assurance by his captives that nothing was to be done, he finally opened the door to the kitchen and convicts in pairs were ordered to delay supper on the night of Oct. 17.

From official sources, it was learned today's trials were but fragments of a long series of cases that will be brought before the court. All the convicts in the institution are being tried, including such convicts as Tim Buck, Sam Barton and others, who were tried in the same way on Jan. 28.

OTTAWA, Feb. 7.—Embers of revolt, which flared into a riot in Kingston penitentiary on October 16, have been smouldering for many months, according to a report of Superintendent D. M. Ormond, of the house of commons today.

Ormond, in a report of Feb. 6, 12 years in prison, disturbances had been a noticeable feature of the institution's history.

His predecessor in office, General W. J. Macdonald, who reported, had observed the conditions in the institution and endeavored to counteract it.

WARDENS AND GUARDS FACE LAZY CHARGES

Twice Each Year Members of Staff Fret Eight
Shots at Drill

OTTAWA, Feb. 7.—Investigation would appear to show that from the year 1889 up to the present time, Warden and staff of Kingston penitentiary must have graduated in the number of "lazy charges."

"This is one of the stations here by Superintendent, in his report to Hon. Hugh Guthrie, minister of justice, on the recent riots."

The report was tabled in the house of commons Monday.

"While these are the facts," he continued, "there was occasional food and arm drill performed, and twice a year each guard fired eight shots, and during the annual drill of certain number of guards were put through some perfunctory sort of drill."

"Further, on rare occasions, the warden or deputy warden gave lectures to the guards."

MILITARY TRAINING

Shortly after the end of the last year, a fair sprinkling of guards were brought into the service who had military training of the type or other. These, however, were not closely scrutinized, and at the present time there are many guards who had little or no service training.

ROBERT SHANNON, of Saskatoon, Director of the Commercial Life Assurance Company of Canada, who is in Edmonton attending the annual meeting of this company.

On the telephone and informed him "all the show had gone out on stage."

HOLLYWOOD GOSSIP
INTIMATE GLIMPSES AND INSIDE STUFF ON THE MOVIE COLONY
By DAN THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 7.—Movie
Hollywood's "out-cast" Creighton Chaney, son of the late Len, is reportedly wearing blue ribbons won by his dog at the recent Palm Springs show. Harlowe Albright also is doing some bragging as a result of that same show. Sure, he has a dog.

And now along comes Stuart Erwin to state that the best way to keep in condition is to become a peep show. Stu claims he did even more road work with his baby buggy the other morning. Our chief mourner this week is Gordon Westcott. And all he lost was a mustache.

They're telling this one about Joan Crawford. When she learned that Gary Cooper's name was to be in large as hers in the billing for their new film, she naively inquired, "Is Gary Cooper a star?" Guess she doesn't know that Gary was handed a $20,000 cash bonus to play with her.

Ronald Colman's house at Malibu is for sale. Which might mean there's some truth to the report that he is returning to England.

There's plenty of others have tried to play with her. And it was a brand new ball. Roland Young and his coach, Major Austin Allen, are trying to write the "real story of Hollywood." Well, plenty of others have tried.

Then there's that executive who remarked the other day that his wife's hands are so beautiful he's going to have a built made of 'em. At last Joe E. Brown has fulfilled his life ambition. He's a baseball manager, having purchased a third interest in the Kansas City club in the American Association.

Guess he never saw last year's baseball attendance figures. Or he's a much better comedian than business man. And isn't the past season's going to get a break if Marjorie Dietrich becomes a style set?

Looks as though Lary Veier and Johnny Weissmuller have discovered and public have been equally enthusiastic about the new Powers Pictures. "Lucky Girl" which is scheduled to open at the Strand theatre on Wednesday.

Gerrard was born and educated in Clapton, London. He started in business as a cutter in his father's shop but in a short time, Gene showed his shrewdness and turned to the stage. For the next five years he had his part or mere "walk-on."

Finally he got a chance to play in a revue in London. The war interrupted his stage career and he served in Italy for four years. Upon returning to the bright lights, he wrote, played and toured in his own show, with Gertrude Lawrence.

EMPRESS
One of the most fascinating screen comedies of the season is "Hands with Care," the Fox film now opened an engagement at the Empress theatre yesterday. It will be shown today and Wednesday.

It brings James Dunn of "Bad Girl" fame, Boots Mallory and El Brendel to the screen in a delightful

NEW BRITISH OFFER MAY BE MADE TO U.S.

Sir Ronald Lindsay in Conference With "Big Five"

By FRANK H. KING
Associated Press Staff Writer.
LONDON, Feb. 7.—A new British offer for settlement of the United States war debt on a definite and final lump sum basis is expected to result from consultations which Sir Ronald Lindsay, British ambassador to the United States, initiated upon his arrival in London this afternoon with the "Big Five" of the cabinet.

The sums mentioned ranged from $120,000,000 to $2,000,000,000 for wiping the great war debt slate clean. The associated Press learned in well-informed quarters.

The total of Britain's war indebtedness to the United States at present is $4,363,430,000. The London government has paid the United States $2,977,343,263 on the war debt.

RAID COMMUNIQUE
A bold communique issued after the British ambassador's conference in the white and gold quarters in London gave no hint of what he had told the cabinet "big five" — prime minister Ramsay MacDonald, lord president of the council Stanley Baldwin, secretary of foreign affairs Arthur Henderson, chancellor of the exchequer Neville Chamberlain and Walter Runciman, president of the board of trade.

There is an official announcement expected here of the substance of the ambassador's mission.

Sir Ronald's consultations will continue daily for about a week. "Golden silence" will envelop them, but personal rumors are that the situation believe a new era of Anglo-American debt negotiations dawned today.

Parliament resumes today for a session continuing until mid-summer, with war debts one of the dominating issues.

Mr. MacDonald will have an opportunity daily by means of interpellations to inform the British public, but it is doubtful whether the full outline of the British plan for debt settlement will be made known before Sir Ronald returns to Washington three weeks hence.

romance involving a shop girl, left with two small boys to care for, and a youthful lawyer.

Dunn and Miss Mallory who are co-featured, both give splendid performances in "Hands with Care." The same may be said for Buster Phelps and Gertrude Lawrence, a pair of young actors who are an important factor in the intriguing plot. El Brendel is as usual equal to every demand of his comic role.

CAPITOL
"Tonight Is Ours" Claudette Colbert-Fredric March starring picture which opens a three-day run at the Capitol theatre on Wednesday, is an adaptation of a play by Noel Coward, brilliant English author, composer, and general lack-of-all-trades, who is best known to the movie public for his "Private Lives."

Like other Coward works, "Tonight Is Ours" is an amusing and romantic comedy of three or four clever, intelligent people. Miss Colbert is cast as a young woman who has loved and lost a responsible English aristocrat for a fling at Paris, and March as the man who has loved and lost her.

Showing at the Capitol for the last times today is "Call Her Savage."

RIALTO
Never since "Broken Blossoms" has a more poignant love story of the Orient been screened than "The Bitter Tea of General Yen," a spectacular Chinese drama which opened Monday for a full week at the Rialto theatre with Barbara Stanwyck starred in her greatest role.

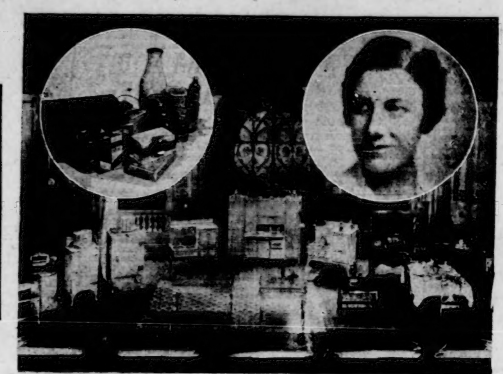

Delicately woven against the intricate and turbulent background of Chinese civil war, this romantic tragedy reaches moments of greatness from the portrayal of Miss Stanwyck as a timid and inhibited American girl who falls under the spell of the Chinese ruler and sweeps into emotional rebellion against her first English upbringing.

Water Connolly, one of the first character actors on the stage, is charming and effective in the role of a delightful tongue-tie who gives added to the emotional drama.

Story by HAL COCHRAN
Directed by GEORGE SCARBO

"Ah, Ha, two hunting bears are in the forest," he said, "and I hear the sound of their gun fired. Secure me that we should have a gun to shoot, like other hunters do."

"As long as we are with you, we won't get lost," he said. "The noise I'll bet the night would make you laugh. It would be something new."

"Why, what do you know," but he asked Danny. "They're not made for fun. I fear you'll have

"Look see, I've shot a gun, myself!"

"You large one of the shell and when a hunted loaded, I made bang away."

"Then something happened."

"That was enough to make me stop. I do not want to see the same thing upset you today."

The bear then should, "Bring the gun. I'm only going to have some fun. I promise I'll be careful."

some trouble, if you start to bang away."

The hunter then said, "I won't scare, if he will shoot up in the air. I'll watch him closely, so we'll have no accidents!"

"Sure, let him try it!" Scooty cried. "But first I'll think I'll run and hide. Give me five minutes to get rid of noise. I'm sure I'll scare him."

Then to the little bear he said, "Now, cubby, try and brace your back. I'll be right behind you. When you see, so you will take a shot."

"Very well," the hunter said. "The gun was handed to the bear."

"Copper," if you're going to shoot, clip pointed it up in the air. Cried kindly go ahead."

The bear was game as game could be. He pulled the little trigger.

"Bang!"

"That's all right," the hunter went the bear. This startled every one!

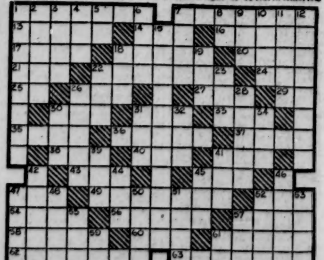

"I am not hurt," the cub cried. "But my, what was that about?"

"The gun wicked," answered Scooty. "See?"

"I said,"

WHEAT FUTURES ON DOWN TREND ON 'PEG MARKET

WINNIPEG, Feb. 7.—Lack of export and a little ease in Chicago started wheat prices on the down trend in quiet trading on the grain exchange here today, but there was very little for sale locally and values closed 1/2¢ lower, to unchanged.

May closed at 87 1/2, July at 82 and August at 78 1/2.

Liverpool reported a pause in demand, but shippers' overhead offered offered 1/2¢. Liverpool was one cent a bushel dearer than No. 2 Northern from Vancouver. Liverpool quotations changed fractionally higher.

Weather conditions in the United States southwest continued unfavorable with no prospect of milder weather.
